All Madrigal participants, please read...

- ❖ New this year, The Royal Consort: this mixed group of singers will perform a piece together on stage, help in greeting and serving guests, and join in the last 3 traditional songs. Two of the gentlemen will also act as the pages.
- ❖ The Royal Consort and Maidens will rehearse during Madrigal camp, every Thursday from 3-4 in October and November, are required to participate in set-up, and must attend every rehearsal from November 24th through strike following the final performance on December 8th. Both the Royal Consort and Maidens will receive a stipend of service hours.
- ❖ Also new this year, along with performing a couple of numbers themselves, the Troubadours will be joining with the Ladies on a couple of musical numbers, and will perform one number with the gentlemen of Madrigal Singers.
